DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

- I. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-8, drawn to an antibody to an epitope of COP-1, classified in class 530, subclass 387.1, for example.
 - II. Claims 19-27, drawn to a method of stimulating remyelination of axons by contacting the axons with an antibody to COP-1, classified in class 435, subclass 368, for example.
 - III. Claims 28-42, drawn to a method of treating a subject by administration of an antibody to COP-1, classified in class 424, subclass 130.1, for example.
 - IV. Claim 43, drawn to a method of stimulating remyelination by contacting the axons with COP-1, classified in class 435, subclass 375, for example.
 - V. Claim 44, drawn to a method of treating a subject by administration of COP-1, classified in class 514, subclass 2, for example.
 - VI. Claims 45-53, drawn to a method of stimulating proliferation of lymphocytes, classified in class 435, subclass 372, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and (II, III and VI) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP

Art Unit: 1646

§ 806.05(h)). In the instant case the antibodies of Group I could be used in an entirely different manner such as for the purification of polypeptides rather than in the methods of Groups (II, III and VI).

3. Inventions I and (IV and V) are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions case the different inventions are not required one for the other in that the antibodies of Group I are not required for the methods of Groups IV and V.

4. Inventions II, III, IV, V and VI are unrelated, also. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are directed to different methods that recite structurally and functionally distinct elements, are not required one for the other, achieve different goals, and therefore constitute patentably distinct inventions.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, recognized divergent subject matter and non-coextensive literature searches, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1646

6. In case Group III or V is elected, claims 38 and 44, respectively, are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising plurality of diseases associated with demyelination of central system axons. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Olga N. Chernyshev whose telephone number is (703) 305-1003. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday to Friday 9 AM to 5 PM ET.
